France Prepares To Make Answer To Russia's Move

"Double-Cross" By Soviet Means Speeding Up French Military Activity

Cabinet Meeting Is Called To Formulate Definite Stand By France

PARIS, Aug. 22.—France's answer to what was termed Russia's "double-cross" will be formulated in dramatic fashion at today's cabinet meeting and, according to well-informed quarters, will involve these moves:

- 1—Orders for the immediate withdrawal of France's military mission from Moscow.
- 2—Measures for large-scale increases in military precautions.
- 3—Declarations by the French and British cabinets that the coming Russo-German on-aggression pact will not alter Anglo-French determination to support Poland.

Accelerate Military Action
Military activity, it was revealed, has been under way here quietly for several days. Further acceleration is expected to bring the army's effectiveness by the end of the week to a point greater even than last September's figure.

This partial mobilization is looked upon as the most effective way of

According to a recent report the teachers retirement fund, in existence but twenty years, has investments of $164,000,000, on which the income is between four and five million, or enough to pay all claims without touching principal. Teachers and the state contribute to the fund. Of course the state could not contribute to all organizations, but the latter could do much to help themselves attain the security they so much desire.

Complaints are being made about the condition of the New Castle-New Bedford road on what is known as the Harbor hill, north of the airport. This road is supposed to be widened about eight feet, but the trouble is that the portion which has been added has never been finished. Stone were broken up to form the base, but these stones have never been rolled down. The base was put in some three months ago. Motorists are wondering just why it is that something has not been done about it.

There are a lot of motorists who imagine that traffic lights have a particular grudge at them. They say that they are always striking red lights, and are disposed to be peevish about it. If those motorists only knew the truth they would learn that red lights don't care a picky about what drivers think of them. They are there to protect

Nazi-Communist Non-Aggression Pact Seen As Blow To Japs

TOKYO, Aug. 22.—Obviously taken by surprise, Japanese government quarters admitted today that the decision to negotiate a Russo-German non-aggression pact has faced Japan with an entirely new situation. Nevertheless, officials said Japan will pursue her course of establishing a "new order" in East Asia, and claimed that present relations with Germany and Italy—signatories with Japan of the anti-Communist pact—would be maintained. As soon as official dispatches from Berlin and Moscow reached Tokyo,

Anglo-Franco-Soviet Military Conversations Will Likely Be Ended

(International News Service)
MOSCOW, Aug. 22.—Pate of the Anglo-Franco-Soviet military and naval conversations, which had been traveling a rough road even before announcement of negotiations for a Soviet-German anti-war agreement, was the immediate question occupying diplomats today.

That all talk of Soviet participation in an alliance with France and Britain is dead was obvious and the general feeling was that staff talks quickly would follow political conversations into the discard. Soviet comment on the Berlin Thunderbolt was sparse. Officially it was limited to this announcement:

"Following conclusion of the Soviet-German trade agreement, there arose the problem of improving political relations between Germany and the U. S. S. R."

"An exchange of views which took place between the governments established that both parties, desirous of relieving tension in their political relations and eliminate the menace of war, will conclude a non-aggression pact."

"Consequently the German minister for foreign affairs, Joachim von Ribbentrop, will arrive in Moscow in a few days for corresponding negotiations."

Indiana Man Is Robbery Victim

Loses $10,000 To Two Men And Blond Woman In Holdup On Lonely Highway

(International News Service)

BELVIDERE, Ill., Aug. 22.—Authorities today hunted two men and a girl in an automobile bearing Ohio license plates on the complaint of Harry S. Fisher, Valparaiso, Ind. metal dealer, that the trio robbed him of $10,000 in cash last night. According to Fisher, one of the men, who identified himself as Ben Wolf of Cleveland, telephoned him at Valparaiso last week and said he had two cars of scrap metal for cash sale in Belvidere. Fisher by agreement met the man in Rockford, Ill., yesterday, and there was introduced to a blond woman supposed to be Mrs. Wolf, and a man Wolf said was his brother-in-law.

Last night, Fisher told police, he and the Wolfs went for an auto ride and two miles beyond Belvidere the couple produced revolvers and robbed him of his money. In a few moments the "brother-in-law" drove up in the auto with Ohio plates and Fisher and the woman left with him, Fisher reported.

By LEON W. SHLOSS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—A sleepless state department gravely eyeing its European cable today refused to draw hasty conclusions from the Russo-German non-aggression pact, but admitted the situation is "dynamic" with collapse of French Anglo-Soviet attempts to fashion an impregnable "peace front" against the axis powers almost inevitable. Beyond admitting that President Roosevelt is being kept closely informed by naval radio of the threatening European situation, high officials of the department would only say that "panic reasoning" should be avoided pending accurate appraisal of the non-aggression pact's significance.

Such appraisal, they pointed out, obviously is impossible until the Russo-German agreement is signed and its terms are published—if they are published.

Poland Refuses To Change Stand On Danzig Issue

POLISH RESISTANCE WILL NOT WEAKEN

German Aggression Against Poland Will Mean Fight, Is Warning

(International News Service)

WARSAW, Aug. 22.—Still banking on British and French support, Poland refused to budge an inch today from her position that German aggression against Poland in Danzig or elsewhere would mean fight.

"Poland will fight for the political independence of Danzig regardless of the formation of any diplomatic constellations," it was stated in semi-official circles. "If Germany thinks she can put new pressure on Poland, she is wrong."

"Germany is making a serious mistake if she thinks the forthcoming Moscow-Berlin pact means the end of all possibility of Polish resistance," it was asserted in Warsaw.

"Russia Making Mistake"
"So, too, is the U. S. R. making a mistake if she places too much faith in an agreement with the Reich. Poles felt. Poland in this regard points to the Polish-German non-aggression pact which Chancellor Hitler by one-sided action broke."

Authorities pointed out significantly that Warsaw had never placed much reliance on Soviet aid in case of war anyway. This was borne out by Poland's consistent refusal to permit the Russian army to move across Polish territory.

Poland herself has a non-aggression pact with Russia, which remains in force. Joseph Lipski, Polish ambassador to Berlin, was back in Warsaw tonight, having returned by special plane as soon as plans for the Berlin-Moscow pact were announced.

Approval of his cabinet was regarded as certain. The parliamentary labor party was summoned for an emergency meeting Thursday morning, and the Liberal party likewise.

Kuhn May Be Recalled As Witness

Bund Probe Is Still In Progress

Some Of Witnesses Contradict Testimony Given By Kuhn

CALIFORNIA MAN BEING HEARD TODAY

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—The Dies committee today placed Henry D. Allen of Los Angeles on the witness stand to give testimony which, members said, would show that the German-American Bund started a drive two years ago to unite with the asserted Fascist and anti-semitic organizations in this country. Allen, who has been identified with the Bund, the Christian Free Press, the Anti-Communist League and similar organizations, was slated to testify that the movement was led jointly by himself and Herman Schwinn, west coast leader of the Bund.

Convention In 1937?
The pair, according to committee members, organized a convention in 1937 out of which was formed the Anti-Communist League. Allen's files, which are in the hands of committee investigators, are said to link virtually every known organization of this character with the movement.

Fritz Kuhn, "fuehrer" of the Bund, denied in testimony before the committee last week that the Bund had ever taken the lead in any effort to obtain a "united front" of Nazi, Fascist and anti-semitic organizations. He admitted that he favored such a front, but stressed that he was opposed to the Bund taking the lead.

Chairman Martin Dies (D), Texas, of the committee, told reporters that Kuhn might be recalled at a later date when the committee has finished hearing its witnesses in the Nazi-Fascist group.

Kuhn steadfastly denied any tie-up between the Bund and Germany, and made numerous statements which appear to have been contradicted by the testimony of witnesses who have followed him.

Dies said the committee might decide to put Kuhn back on the stand and confront him with this testimony, also with other evidence which the committee says is yet to come. Rep. Mason (R) of Illinois, a committee member, agreed with Dies that the broad-shouldered Kuhn should be made to answer for his testimony.

demonstrating that France's resolution to back up Poland has not changed.

It will, in effect, amount to moving a huge stack of chips in order to meet the "gigantic bluff" from the eastern side of the European poker table.

Gain Only Psychological

Although diplomatic circles here admit they have been dealt a severe blow and do not attempt to minimize it, calmer heads believe that the advantage Germany has gained is principally psychological.

The extent of this gain will be tested by British-French cabinet declarations of continued support for Poland.

France, it was understood, received confidential reports during the last fortnight that negotiations were taking a turn for the worse in Moscow, but the suddenness and the method of the German announcement was a shock. Neither the French nor the British governments received a word of the accord until after the announcement by DNB, the official German news agency, in Berlin.

France To Stand Fast

The Quai D'Orsay hummed with diplomatic activity in advance of the cabinet meeting. William C. Bullitt, United States ambassador, was among foreign minister Georges Bonnet's early visitors. Bullitt and Premier Edouard Daladier later had luncheon together.

Official Polish sources in Paris declare, like the British and French, that their position is unchanged. Diplomatic circles insist the French will have to stand fast, being unable to let Poland go at any cost.

All staff leaves at air fields, it was learned, were cancelled last night, and anti-aircraft guns were fully manned at Le Bourget field and other centers last night.

Some observers here feared the Russo-German tie-up was a move towards the partition of Poland, which would mean almost immediate war.

How serious the Japanese-Soviet warfare is was demonstrated by a dispatch from Hsinking, Manchukuo, stating the Japanese airforce yesterday engaged Soviet and outer Mongol warplanes four times, shooting down 97 of them to bring the total Soviet and outer Mongolian losses to 1,101. Five Japanese planes were reported lost.

Earlier in the morning the cabinet met but withheld its decisions pending further advice from Moscow, Berlin and other capitals. Press comment, however, made it clear that official quarters were surprised and far from pleased.

FRANCE-BRITAIN MAY ISSUE CALLS FOR PARLIAMENTS

of the British and French general staffs, has 2,000,000 fighting men mobilized, and their disposition on the Polish border is such that the Reich could strike within two days. This does not necessarily mean that Chancellor Hitler intends to order his troops to strike on Thursday, for the opinion here is that the Russo-German agreement will delay hostilities at least for a couple of days.

Await Warsaw Attitude

Much of what lies in store for quaking Europe must depend on the fate of the three-power military and naval staff consultations in Moscow, which so far have not been called off, also on the attitude of Warsaw.

Britain and France are not bound to fight unless Poland does. And, while latest dispatches from Warsaw reflected an intransigent attitude on Poland's part, it still was felt here that new developments might force the Poles to change their attitude.

In Moscow foreign minister Von Ribbentrop of Germany will seek more than the non-aggression stipulation, it was predicted, but he will ask the Russian promise also not to supply any country fighting with Germany.

Seek To Recover From Blow

Under the suddenly altered circumstances, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, foreign secretary Lord Halifax, and other cabinet members met to try to recover from the German blow by planning emergency measures.

Both Britain and France will accelerate their defensive measures, it was forecast. But Chamberlain also faces difficulties at home. Opponents said he lost a tremendous diplomatic battle to Hitler by "dilly-dallying." Chamberlain's answer is that his opponents forced him to carry on impossible negotiations with the Soviets.

Germans Think Peace Assured

Berlin, Aug. 22.—There are Polish-German border incidents today added to Europe's fright, but in Germany a triumphant populace held to the initial belief that the Russo-German pact on non aggression means peace for all.

Reports from Mischakowitz, near Moravian Ostrau, said Polish customs officials fired on, but missed, two German customs officials. The Germans did not reply to the fire.

A similar incident involving shooting by Polish customs men was related from Reichswaldau. None of the Germans was wounded.

Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop was set to leave at once for Moscow, where negotiations to conclude the continent-shaking agreement are due to begin tomorrow.

Diplomatic observers agreed with the man-in-the-street that the war, towards which the crisis over Danzig has been heading for the last few days, will surely be at least postponed.

Foreign newspaper reports predicting immediate action by Germany against Poland were semi-officially styled "speculations." They probably were built on the basis of the speech by Albert Forster, Nazi leader in Danzig, seeking a solution of the Danzig question, was likely within a couple of days.

No official information regarding the possible moves of the German general staff can be given out, it was explained.

At the same time, all indications are that the general staff continues its preparations to draw an iron ring about Poland's borders, and is ready for all eventualities.

While all attention is on Germany's peaceful intentions, and refusal to give any leads or predictions, it is an open secret that German military circles consider Poland's defense forces so inferior that any possible war is likely to result only in a brief drama—merely a walk-over—with the grace granted to Poland varying between a week and a month.

"THE OUTSTANDING CLEANERS, FURRIERS, DYERS"

STATE DEPARTMENT MUCH CONCERNED OVER SOVIET PACT

spurred widening speculation, with various quarters privately advancing the following contentions:

1. President Roosevelt, returning to the capital aboard the USS Tuscaloosa from an ocean holiday will renew his efforts to force congressional revision of neutrality legislation to permit this country to aid Britain and France by methods "short of war" in their stand against Germany and Italy.

2. The Russo-German pact will crumble, the Italo-Jap-German anti-comintern alliance, because a German pledge not to attack Russia would strip from Japan its benediction from the coalition, and give the Soviet free rein in combating Nippon's invasion of China.

Hitler-Mussolini Schism?

The Russo-German agreement may indicate a schism between Hitler and Mussolini, arising possibly from Italian unwillingness to support Germany in a war for Danzig. Reports have reached the capital for nearly a year that Germany and Russia might combine "red and brown Bolshevism" to control Europe, with Nazi industry and Soviet raw materials complementing each other.

4. Announcement of projected consummation of a Russo-German non-aggression pact was designed (a) by Germany to force softening of French and British attitude toward the Danzig situation or (b) by Russia, as "pressure politics" to force France and Britain into an outright military alliance with the Soviets. Thus far, through out the protracted French-Anglo-Soviet "peace front" negotiations, the democracies have declined to enter into such an agreement.

Errol Flynn Successful In Motion Picture World Ventures

By BURDETTE JAY
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 22.—Apparently Errol Flynn will have to confine his money making activities to some branch of the motion pictures if he expects to retire within his bank account intact. Ever since he came to Hollywood from England and climbed rapidly to fame and fortune somewhat over four years ago Flynn has been trying to make a little money on the side. Until recently, however, all his financial ventures were notable failures.

Once he staked a prospector to $10,000 bought the fellow an airplane and hired a pilot to fly him to Alaska in search for an assertedly rich claim. All Flynn got out of that was a single nugget about the size and thickness of a twenty-five cent piece and the questionable distinction of having an Alaska mountain named after him. After the prospector had disappeared, the pilot of the plane, Bud Ernst, a pal of Flynn's named the mountain around which the search had centered, "Flynn's Folly."

On another occasion, during a cruise around Cuba, Flynn discovered a sunken cannon off the Isle of Pines. He had read somewhere that the pirates used to stuff treasure down the muzzle of their cannon and heave them overboard when pursued by Men-of-War. Flynn couldn't wait—he had to get back to Hollywood—but he hired a diving crew to recover the cannon. Cost: $2200. Profit: about $200 worth of semi-precious stones. But now the swashbuckling star has found something that apparently is going to pay him a profit.

He and Howard Hill, the champion archer, have become partners in a film shorts producing venture. They have sold the first two to Warner Bros. who have contracted for ten more at a reportedly handsome profit.

Once before Flynn has hit the film business for a nice profit aside from his regular earnings as a star. That was when he sat down with William A. Ullman, his literary collaborator, and wrote the original story and screen play of "The White Rajah." Flynn and Ullman asked a big price for their manuscript and got it. Thus Flynn has decided that his fortune lies in pictures. He has been equally successful as actor, producer and writer.

James May Further Reduce Payroll In State Is Indicated

Directs That Analysis And Inventory Of Every State Department Be Made

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 22.—A possible further reduction in the number of state employees was indicated today as Gov. Arthur H. James revealed he has ordered a personnel survey of executive departments as part of his economy campaign.

"I have directed that an analysis and inventory of every department be made," said the governor, explaining that he wished to discover whether it would be possible to weed out unnecessary employees.

Figures earlier released by the governor as of July 1 indicated that the number of employees under the governor's authority had decreased since his inauguration from 12,528 to 10,424, a reduction of 2,104. The saving amounted to $3,800,000 annually, representing a reduction from $21,600,000 to $17,800,000.

The governor said he had given no thought to a general wage slash for higher salaries officials.

Hazelcroft Avenue Extension In Need Of Surfacing Now

A year or more ago, work was partially completed on the improvement of Hazelcroft avenue, leading from North Mercer street to Wilmington avenue, through Neshannock township.

Some months were spent in putting down a stone foundation for the roadway, and then loose limestone was scattered over the top.

With the constant use of the autos that use this stretch of roadway, the top coating has worn off, in many places, and the stones are now exposed. In some places even the stones are beginning to be worked out of place.

Travelers believe that if a top surfacing is not placed on this roadway soon, much of the work of building the foundation may have to be done over.

New Alien Bureau Prepares For Rush

Forms To Be Filed By Aliens Being Prepared At State Capital

HARRISBURG, August 22.—The state's new alien registration bureau was busy today arranging forms to be filed by aliens between December 1, 1938 and January 1, 1940.

Despite the fact that many aliens have rushed to federal departments and state courts for initial citizenship papers to avoid the compulsory registration, the Labor and Industry Department bureau will be kept moving at top speed during the mandatory registration period. Alien Registrar William E. Douglas said.

Those who take out first papers are automatically exempt from registering under the new state law. Others exempt are the father or mother of a son or daughter who served the country in any war, and an alien with residence in the U. S. before December 31, 1908, and never convicted of a criminal offense.

Those who must register will receive a card costing $1 and good for a year. The card must be carried at all times and must be presented on request of a police officer.

Several Sites Have Been Used For Fairs

Fair Was Once Held On North Hill—Also Down Near Seventh Ward

With the New Castle fair opening today at the fair grounds on the Harlansburg road, older residents of New Castle recall that a number of sites have been utilized for fairs in past years.

At one time a fair grounds was located on the North Hill, with the entrance on what is now Edison avenue. It is related. At another time there was a fair grounds in the Seventh Ward environs, at the location now occupied by the sewage disposal plant.

Further back in the city's history it is revealed that there was a fair grounds in the vicinity of Jefferson and Wallace avenues.

And for years the Lawrence county fair was held at Pulaski. Although now abandoned, the half mile race track can still be seen at the Pulaski fair site.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Aug. 22.—Firmly convinced that a special session of the legislature is unescapable, Republican leaders in the house and senate were reported to have tentatively agreed on a convening time for the session. . . from reliable sources it was learned that legislative leaders prefer not to have the legislators recalled earlier than January 15, 1940, nor later than February 15, 1940.

One Republican leader termed as "absolutely foolish" any effort to recall the legislature on November 13, only six days after the municipal elections. . . It was indicated that the session call will primarily be to cope with the relief situation and Gov. Arthur H. James and G. O. P. leaders all agree now that business recovery in recent weeks coupled with increased WPA allocation have definitely eased the problem.

House Speaker Ellwood C. Turner, Delaware Republican, admitted he had a tax plan, but refused to divulge its contents. . . meanwhile other members of the newly-organized state joint government commission were considering revenue-raising plans.

It was pointed out that relief funds available now will carry over until January and that no other problems were of such a "must" nature that they could not wait until that time. The legislature, to raise additional relief funds may be forced, it was stated, to levy new taxes, despite campaign assertions of governor James that no new levies would be made. . . Republican leaders have consistently parried questions, however, relating to the kind of taxes that may be adopted.

Mrs. Rose Calabrese, former resident of Wilkes-Barre and Scranton but now residing in Harrisburg, is being mentioned in capitol circles as a probable appointee to a $4200 job either in the department of welfare or the department of labor and industry. . . A Margiotti organizer in 14 Central Pennsylvania counties when the ousted attorney general was seeking the Independent Republican gubernatorial nomination, Mrs. Calabrese, upon Margiotti's defeat, supported Governor James. . . She has been mentioned for either the bureau of women and children in labor and industry or bureau of homes and hospitals in welfare.

With appointment of S. John Morrow as Fayette county judge, judgeship appointments still pending were reduced to two by Gov. James. . . Vacancies are still to be filled in Erie and Philadelphia counties.

Pennsylvania health authorities hold no fear of an infantile paralysis epidemic in the state, despite more than 13 cases being reported since July 1. . . Dr. John J. Shaw, secretary of health, said July and August generally sees an increase of the disease and that if an epidemic was in the offing a rapid rise in the number of cases would result.

On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

EARLY INOCULATION AGAINST DIPHTHERIA IS RECOMMENDED

Inoculation for diphtheria I am very much in favor of, and I recommend that it be done at the age of nine months. As I told you in the preceding article, we inoculated the Dionne quintuplets against diphtheria even before we vaccinated them against smallpox.

This inoculation is done in different ways in the various localities. In my neighborhood we use three doses of toxoid, injecting them under the skin at intervals of about three weeks. Some states use the same method as we do; some give only two doses of the toxoid, while in some cities, I understand, only one dose of toxoid is given.

We believe there that the three doses will give immunity over a longer period than one or two doses. Six months after toxoiding it is well to have a Schick test performed to see whether the toxoid has taken effect or not.

Active immunization against scarlet fever has many good points, but I don't believe that child specialists entirely agree in favor of it yet. Often there are severe reactions, and a physician performing this inoculation often will have to give five doses. Even then immunization isn't assured. Where this inoculation is of undoubted value is in large hospitals where a lot of children are present as patients.

Immunization against measles is still pretty much in the experimental stage. At best it is only a temporary protection against the disease, but it does tend to modify the virulence of the disease when it strikes.

Typhoid fever is one of the diseases we see but little of now, but 20 or 30 years ago I used to use a great deal of serum in immunizing people against it. Protection against typhoid through toxoiding lasted about three years or longer. But with the progress in sanitation in recent years the disease has almost disappeared, and we don't do much immunizing for it now.

Sometimes a doctor is puzzled about the proper dose of these various serums to give a patient. Years ago, when I found a person who was being exposed to diphtheria I used to inject about a thousand units of the antitoxin into the muscle. This constituted a partial protection, but it wore off altogether in from ten days to three weeks. When I found a patient suffering with an acute attack of diphtheria I made it a practice to give fifty or sixty thousand units, yet at times I have given 100,000 units at one dose, for I regarded this as better than giving two smaller doses.

A great deal of tetanus serum is used on people who have been injured and when there is reason to believe that they may develop lockjaw. Actually I have never seen a case of tetanus in my vicinity. I think the reason is that the soil is pretty rocky and light, and the tetanus germs do not get much of a chance to develop.

In tetanus, too, you give a large number of units of the antibody—sixty to a hundred thousand units. It is a great thing, too, for I have seen cases treated with it in some of the larger hospitals.

Pennsylvania G.O.P. Ponders Possible Presidential Nominees

Gov. Bricker Is Among Favored

Justice Roberts And Governor James, Also Among Men Discussed

SENATOR TAFT IS BIG CONTENDER

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Aug. 22. — With national organization leaders reported to be favoring an "open" race at the Republican national convention, the names of Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio and U. S. supreme court justice Owen J. Roberts were being talked of today as the choice of the Pennsylvania organization for president in 1940.

The report was that in the event Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio was unable to obtain the presidential nomination, the Pennsylvania organization would throw its delegation to the support of Ohio's governor.

May Boom Roberts
In the event the move to nominate Bricker failed and no other candidate was successful, the Pennsylvania organization would seek to put forward the name of supreme court justice Roberts, a resident of Pennsylvania, it was learned.

Roberts a few days ago stated he was "perfectly satisfied" with his present position and is wholly unavailable as a Republican presidential candidate, but it was felt certain that if the convention offered him the nomination he would not refuse it.

A precedent for such action was established in 1916, it is pointed out, when Chief Justice Charles E. Hughes, then an associate justice, resigned from the supreme court to accept the Republican nomination and narrowly missed defeating President Woodrow Wilson.

James Favorite Son

According to the reported plans of the Pennsylvania organization, the Pennsylvania delegation would be instructed to present Gov. Arthur H. James as a "favorite son" candidate, thus keeping the delegation free from any commitments to the three leading candidates, Senator Taft of Ohio, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, and District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey of New York. None of the three, it was reported, was looked upon with any great favor by business interests within the Republican party.

It was thought quite likely that the Pennsylvania organization, having little hope of nominating Governor James, would make an attempt to have him named as the vice presidential candidate.

Successful operation of the reported plan is dependent in some part upon what success organization leaders have in placing or if need be, overriding the Young Republican group within its organization. Young Republicans are reported at present as being not overly enthusiastic over aligning themselves for James-for-president, feeling that a more liberal candidate should be supported.

Governor Bricker, like Governor James is an advocate of economy in government and since his induction into office has attempted to put such a program into effect in Ohio. He has announced he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination, but it is felt certain that he would not refuse the nomination if tendered.

Justice Roberts was a Philadelphia attorney until his appointment in 1930 to the supreme court by President Hoover.

Troop To Dedicate New Scouting Camp

Dr. Samuel Irvine To Deliver Dedication Talk At New Troop Camp Sunday

In order to dedicate their new camp, Boy Scouts and Scouters of Troop 3, together with their parents and friends, will gather in Jefferson State Forest, Sunday afternoon, August 27, at 3:30 o'clock.

Dr. Samuel Irvine of the First United Presbyterian church will be the main speaker and he will present an appropriate talk. The program will include a basket picnic supper at the camp, following the dedication.

The camp, to be known as Camp Clearhawk, is located in the beautiful hills of Jefferson county, five miles from Sigel on State Route 949, along Clear Creek.

The Scouts and Scouters of the troop have been working like beavers since early last spring, building the camp and are now ready to start a week of troop camping, and to have the camp dedicated to the use of present and future scouts of the troop.

The building proper, is constructed like a large cross, being 93 feet long and 48 feet wide. It was built to accommodate from 40 to 50 Scouts at one time. This new camp will be available for both summer and winter camping.

The camp's swimming pool is state approved and free to the public. Wild life is in abundance and the scenery is beautiful, making an ideal camping place for Scouts and Scouters.

E. D. Hawk is Scoutmaster of this troop, and has been instrumental in securing this new camp.

Two Conventions Here Just Year Ago

New Castle Sending Delegates To Meadville And Bethlehem This Year

New Castle, a year ago, was observing convention week. Two large conventions were held here during the same week, the Elks state convention and the Northwestern Pennsylvania Firemen's gathering.

This year New Castle is sending delegates to the 1939 conventions of these organizations.

The firemen's convention is to be held at Meadville, while the Elks state convention is now in session at Bethlehem. Mayor James G. Bohlender, of Franklin, is scheduled to be elected as state president of the Elks, this time.

Camp Kiondashawa Life Is Depicted

"Click, click," snapped cameras, as one after another Girl Scout activities at Camp Kiondashawa this week was recorded to remind the girls when they come back of the most successful camp they have yet attended.

Behind the cameras were two volunteer amateur photographers Ted and Chalmers Sproul of Sheridan avenue, whose hobby, like many of those in camp this year, is photography. Accompanying them were Mrs. C. B. Sproul and Mrs. John A. Edgar, the latter of whom is public relations chairman for the Girl Scouts.

"After making known their presence to 'Lindy' the popular camp director, the group began their tour appropriately, at the old log cabin where a corner has been curtained off as a 'dark room' for developing and printing of camp pictures, under the supervision of Marion Brown and Louise Kerr. The instructors have a group of 15 girls learning the A. B. C.'s of this fascinating art.

The "Dutch Unit" composed of the youngest girls (10 and 11 year olds—an even dozen) had found a shady spot nearby the cabin, and there under their counselors Mildred Lusk, Louise Kerr and Lucille Purdy, attractive silhouettes were being made and passed partout bound to make lovely pictures.

Have Full Schedule

Miss Lusk provided the tourists with the "daily schedule" enabling them the better to follow the camp program of activity. For the benefit of parents who like to know just what their girls are doing daily, the routine follows:

Morning
7:00—Rising Bell.
7:45—Breakfast.
8:30—Capers.
9:00—Staff Meeting.
9:30-12:00—Unit Programs, including crafts, swimming, boating, archery.
12:30—Dinner.

Afternoon
1:15—Canteen "trading post."
2:00-3:00—Rest Hour.
3:00-5:00—Unit programs, similar to morning.
5:00-6:00—Free swim.
6:00—Supper.
7:00—Camp Council—twice a week.
7:30-8:30—Campfire.
9:00—Taps—Goodnight.

Melissa White has charge of the "middle unit" assisted by Jeanne Gilson, Marion Brown and Mrs. H. R. McCulloch. By the way, this group was boating, five boats and two canoes being available.

"Ve Craft Shoppe" was an interesting spot, a group of girls being found working under the direction of their leader, Mrs. H. R. McCulloch. The girls are doing work in metals, cork, wood, burlap, glass, raffia, and leather. Several Horner, camp dietitian, who is doing a mighty fine job of planning good, appetizing, substantial meals for her big flock.

She is being ably assisted by two popular cooks, Mrs. Pearl Mills and Mrs. Essie Morrison, whose culinary ability is well known. In winter they have charge of George Washington Junior High cafeteria.

As dinner is followed by "rest hour" from 2 to 3 o'clock, the Gypsies were found with their leaders, Mrs. Perol Onstott and Mrs. George Ward, food lieutenant. They were all making "silent" plans for their first camp-out which was to precede on another day their big four day trip to Pymatung Dam. The latter will conclude on Friday of this week.

Even though the "New England Colonists" (Pioneer group), were lying about on their cots and the ground, the visitors were shown about by Betty Flaven of Erie who is nicknamed "Governor Winthrop" and Mary Louise Meehan, "Cotton Mather."

This group cooks two of the three meals a day out of doors (by the way, mothers should have some good helpers when the girls return), and having great fun besides. They have set up their own camp apart from the others, learning rudiments of camp construction work in building drains, garbage pits, incinerator and other necessities.

They have the fullest group program in camp, for besides practical work, the girls are going period handicraft, making candleholders and trays from used tin cans, displaying a most economical and thrifty turn of mind. A Boston tea party was on their calendar for this week.

Last but not least, the Hobby Unit claimed attention. This group numbering 16, is specializing in photography, lifesaving, and insect lore.

They also like archery, which is taught by Maurine Smith, and nature work under Helen McCrea of Oil City.

Election Day Is Three Weeks Away

City And County Primary
Candidates Prepare For Last Drive For Votes

Three weeks from today, September 12, New Castle and Lawrence county voters will go to the polls to make their selection of party candidates for city and county offices for the election in November. Although candidates have been busy for some time, the campaign does not appear to have warmed up to a great extent at the present time. It is expected that greater interest will be developed during the next three weeks as the candidates come down the stretch in the final effort to convince the voters of their qualifications.

Only Republican and Democratic parties will be represented in the primary, because no other party polled a sufficient number of votes at the last general election to be entitled to representation.

Rotary Members Have Corn Roast

Enjoy Informal Outing Monday Night At City Of New Castle Water Works

There were 125 members of the local Rotary club, their wives and children, gathered at the City of New Castle Water Works pump station site, along the Shenango river, Monday evening, for a corn roast.

The club members were the guests of J. LePere Matthews, manager of the water company.

An informal time was enjoyed with horseshoe pitching, softball games, and group singing being the main diversions.

The event began at 5 o'clock and continued until dark, and everyone had an enjoyable evening.

Correct Constipation Before—Not After!

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of emergency relief. Why let yourself suffer those dull lifeless days because of constipation, why bring on the need for emergency medicines, when there may be a far better way? That way is to KEEP regular by getting at the cause of the trouble.

If it's common constipation, due to lack of "bulk" in the diet, a pleasant, nutritious, ready-to-eat cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran—goes straight to the cause by supplying the "bulk" you need.

Eat this crunchy toasted cereal every day—with milk or cream, or baked into muffins—drink plenty of water, and see if you don't forget all about constipation. Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

Reds Increase Lead In League

Defeat Phils As Cardinals Find Brooklyn Dodgers Too Tough In Eastern Clash

CHICAGO CUBS DEFEAT GIANTS

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—The sizzling National League pennant race had shifted into the east today, but with the same rip-tearing western clubs—the Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cardinals—belling their way through the stretch in the general direction of the pot of world series gold at the end of the baseball rainbow.

Having fought up and down the western sector against the chief contenders for the championship, the Reds and Cards now are playing along the eastern seaboard against the weaker clubs of the circuit on a swing that will last until Aug. 31, when they will move back into the west. Possibly by that time the flag will be clinched by one or the other, but more likely, according to the present trend, it's destined to be a battle all the way to the finish.

No Easy Picking
And they may or may not find the east easy pickings. The best they could do yesterday was get a split as they opened their long road trip, the Reds beating the Philadelphia Phillies 7 to 0 behind the pitching of John Niggeling, late of Indianapolis, and the Cards, surprisingly, taking it on the chin against the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7 to 1. Thus the Reds' lead was increased to 4½ games over the Cards, who have won 19 and tied one of their last 23 games.

The Reds made only nine hits, but enjoyed two big innings against the Philadelphia pitchers and won as they pleased. The Cards were stopped by Luke Hamlin, the lanky right-hander, who registered his 15th victory for the Dodgers. They pulled up into fourth place ahead of the New York Giants, who were beaten by Larry French of the Chicago Cubs, 4 to 3.

Slovaks-Indies Tangle Tonight In Crucial Game

Victory For Slovaks Tonight Will Just About Cinch Second-Half And League Title

INDIES TO FACE LEROY, ANDERSON

Cedar Street baseball grounds will be jammed to the last inch tonight for the crucial Slovak Club and Union Red Caps in the city baseball league. This game will start at 5:30 o'clock and there are several possibilities to be derived.

First the Slovaks can practically clinch the City Baseball league championship and second-half title tonight by a victory. A defeat for the Slovaks will set the stage for a tie for the top rung if the Elders can also trip the Slovaks. The Indians know that they must win tonight to be in the running.

Anderson To Pitch
Leroy "Blondie" Anderson, the Slovak Club ace pitcher will be out there tonight on the knoll trying for his 13th straight city league victory. Will thirteen prove unlucky for the clever right-hander? The fans are anxious to know.

The manager of the Indies "Boss" Zidow does not know who he will give the starting nod to. It may be Majocha, or it may be Joe Wilk, a lad always hard to beat. Anyway it is going to be one of the best games of the year and if the weather is right, you will not be able to get a glimpse of the playing field after 5:30 o'clock. This is the game that the Indies must win.

Umpires Assigned
The head of the umpires association today selected Austin Cowmeadow and Anthony Priscaro to handle the Slovak-Indies game tonight. Priscaro will be back of the plate and Cowmeadow on the bases.

Hot Tops Beat Ellwood 4 To 2

Defeat Helps To Knock Ellwood Out Of Title Tie

New Castle Hot Tops presented a rude jolt to the Ellwood City Shelby Socials when the former won 4 to 2 at Ellwood City, Monday, knocking the Ellwoodians out of a possible tie for the second half championship in the Lawrence County Baseball League.

Had Ellwood City won they would have captured 13 games to five defeats for a percentage of .722. As things now stand the Bessemer aggregation, first half winner, has 12 wins against five defeats and a percentage of .705 against .666 for Ellwood City. Bessemer has yet one game to play.

Ellwood City has protested the loss Friday to the Red Sox because an umpire called the game on account of darkness. Yesterday it was the cellar champion Red Sox who lost to Bessemer and with two games to play the Hot Tops have a chance of deadlocking Ellwood City for second place.

The Hot Tops scored three in the second and another in the fourth. The Socials came through with a run in both fourth and fifth frames. McCready and Patton pitched fairly even ball but four errors behind McCready did the team no appreciable good.

Fair Racing Program Will Begin Wednesday

Twenty four more hours and the trotters and pacers will "get the word" from Paul Wright, Canfield O., at the New Castle Fair track. Yes, siree, folk, they've got an aggregation of select trotters and pacers out there and indications may be shattered.

The track is fast; in fact, it has been pronounced by the visiting horsemen to be the fastest in the tri-state area. Six hundred dollars was spent to put it in the shape it is in and with extra inducements the horseman plan to try and capture some of the inducements.

One of the inducements is a $10 note to the horse first to the half mile post in any event. In these days when hay and feed costs considerable and horseman has a lot of trotters and pacers to feed one may bet his dollar that those horsemen are going to try and grab that extra 10-spot.

Here are the marks they'll be trotting or pacin' to beat, opening Wednesday at 1:30 p. m., and ending Friday, under U. S. association rules.

The New Castle High School football candidates are asked by Head Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh to appear at the stadium field-house promptly at 7 o'clock Thursday evening. Any young men not at the meeting will not be considered in the selection of those to make the camp trip.

The team will have a workout at the stadium on Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. It was announced by Coach Phil and also on Saturday. The trip to camp will start bright and early on Monday morning. It is likely that about 35 or 40 will be taken to camp at Muddy Creek Falls.

There is considerable work to be done before the opening of the 1939 season on the night of September 15 with Butler high furnishing the opposition here. There will be quite a number of holdover veterans from last year on hand. Missing will be Roussos and Rucker both mainstays on the varsity team.

Plenty Of Backs
The team will be well fortified with backfield men such as the veteran Lindy Lauro, at fullback, Larry "Streak" Roberts at half, Joe Gendler, Eddie Sowinski, and then there will be newcomers the Izzo brothers of Mahoningtown, Biddle from Washington High, all promising backfield bets.

The formation of a strong line this year will be the chief worry confronting Bridy and his capable assistants—Gig Thomas, Bill Kise and Paul Cuba, all of whom will be in camp, and so will Scouts Nelson, faculty manager and Robert Stewart, school property custodian.

Bessemer Wins Second Half Flag

Despite Errors Miller Pitches
Good Ball But Red Sox Lose

Bessemer clinched the championship of the second half of the Lawrence County Baseball league at Bessemer, Monday, by beating the Red Sox 3 to 1. Errors beat the Red Sox, eight misuses having been made. This was a jolt to McMillen who, despite the errors, hurled a splendid brand of ball, allowing only three hits, the same number permitted by Olsen.

Te victory over the Red Sox gave Bessemer, also first half winner, 12 wins against five defeats in the second half and sent them ahead of Ellwood City because Ellwood City lost six games, the last to the Red Sox, which drew a protest because the umpire called the game on account of darkness.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL

Today the New Castle Fair opens its gates. Just what will be there we can't say as things have kept us tied down and a pre-showing has been impossible. But the country folks and the finest in any land... will have their products on display. So if you have the time be sure to visit the Fair.

The man who works with his eye on the clock, Just gets to the end of the day— But he doesn't get far on the Road to Success For he hasn't headed that way.

He hasn't an ounce of genuine "push"— Except to "push the clock"— And then when other folks get ahead He loves to sneer and "knock"—

He gives just so many hours a day, And he draws no joy from his work; The only thing that he draws is his pay, And it's all that he doesn't shirk.

He puts nothing in—except his time, So gets nothing out at the end, Besides some paltry dollars and cents, Which he straightaway proceeds to spend

It's the chap who renders service-plus Not just by the hour or the day, But by all that's in him, and gives his best, For love of his work—not for pay;

Who's going to sit in the leader's chair, And get to the very top; For he's headed straight to be truly great, And nothing can make him stop!

And you will be wise and headed straight in the right way... if you read the classified ads daily... they will save you in many ways.

Stock Market In Rally Today

Good Gains Made By Many Stocks After Slow
Start

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, August 22.—The stock market rallied today, after momentary confusion at the start on the stunning news of Germany's non-aggression pact with Russia. Gains ran to more than three points at one time, but the uncertainty here and abroad on the latest diplomatic bombshell brought a reaction from bet levels.

Markets in London, Paris and Amsterdam were under heavy pressure at the opening, but rallied somewhat after the local list moved upward. Foreign exchange dealings were nervous and erratic, with most price changes small.

Trading was active in initial dealings, with blocks running to 3,500 shares changing hands. First hour volume amounted 370,000 shares, largest for the period in some time. The pace slowed appreciably later in the forenoon, as Wall Street attempted to get its bearings on the new twist to foreign developments.

Westinghouse Electric stood out on the upside. The stock appeared on the tape at 101 bid—105 offered, compared with yesterday's close of 99½, then sold 1,000 shares at 102½, up 3½ points. This was later halved. DuPont, Union Carbide, Bethlehem, Youngstown, U. S. Rubber and Chrysler each showed extreme gains of two or more points.

Hitch-Hiking Practice Grows In This State

Hitch-hiking may be banned in Pennsylvania, but any autoist who has recently made a trip across the state will bear witness to the fact that the practice is gaining momentum steadily.

In a recent auto trip an observer reports that not only were men to be found along the road seeking a lift, but that girls and women, in one instance a woman with a baby, were among those seeking to "thumb" rides.

In one section, a man with crutches was seated along the roadside, seeking to have some autoist pick him up and give him a ride to his destination.

Few Unpaved Streets On North Hill Now

North Mercer Street Only Principal Thoroughfare That Is Not Paving Project

At the rate of paving that has been done through the city and W. P. A. efforts on the North Hill, during the past few years, it will not be a great while until the entire North Hill section will be entirely paved.

Streets on the hill that are unpaved are becoming scarcer and scarcer.

One of the biggest paving projects that remains is the possible paving of North Mercer street from Sheridan avenue to the city line. As this thoroughfare is partly in Neshannock township and partly in the city, and as work is still in progress on construction of the storm sewer on the street, it will probably be some time before there will be any definite move for paving.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Modern psychiatry offers hope to the mentally ill.

Daily average census in Pennsylvania hospitals in 1938 was 73,158. More than half of these were mental or nervous cases.

Until recently, a mental patient was looked upon as being insane. The patient's family was in disgrace, the patient confined.

Today, we look at mental disease more openly and frankly. Like a physical disease it often can be successfully treated.

Mental patients need kindly, sympathetic human understanding. Many of them need only the loving care given a child.

Modern complicated living encourages mental breakdown. Modern psychiatry offers a cure for this condition.

A balanced outlook on life is good preventive medicine.

Two Thousand Freshmen Will Enter Penn State

STATE COLLEGE, August 22.—The largest freshman class in its history—a full 2,000—will be admitted by the Pennsylvania State College next month.

This total, said Registrar William S. Hoffman, "exceeds last year's record of 1868, which was the largest freshman class ever to matriculate in any Pennsylvania college."

The incoming class will be divided in this way: 1,320 on the home campus, in line with an increase of 20 allowed by the board of trustees beyond the 1938 quota; 400 at the college's five undergraduate centers; 105 at the freshman forestry center at Mont Alto; and approximately 175 transfers and readmitted students.

Freshman Week begins on the campus on Thursday, September 14, and college classes will open September 20.

Walks Two Hundred Miles To See Big Job

Harrisburg Man, Interested In Construction Work, Walks Over Dream Road Route

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Aug. 22.—Two hundred miles is a long walk, but that's the way 60-year-old Henry G. Sample of Greensburg preferred to travel in visiting construction work on Pennsylvania's $60,000,000 "dream highway" between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

Sample, an electrician whose hobby is visiting large construction jobs and who observed construction of the Panama canal during 1914 and 1915, walked the entire distance in 10 days.

He declined all rides and six nights of the trip made his home in the mountains surrounding the super-road. He subsisted mostly on milk, raw eggs and chocolate which he carried in a knapsack slung on his back.

Sample's luggage, with canteen and camera, weighed 25 pounds. At the end of the trip he weighed 173 pounds—he had lost only five pounds in the 200-mile walk.
